

Georgia Association of Secondary School Principals

A Plan for Improvement and Service

"Lead, Now"

The Purpose of GASSP is to:

- Promote high professional standards;
- Focus attention on challenges for middle school and high school leaders;
- Provide a state and national voice for middle school and high school leaders;
- Build public confidence in public education;
- Strengthen the role of the instructional leader;
- Publicize the issues and interests of the organization's members;
- Provide unique member services, networking, and opportunities for collegiality to middle school leaders and high school leaders; and
- Work cooperatively with other organizations to promote public education.

To fulfill that purpose, the following mission drives the improvement plan:

GASSP is committed to the improvement and strengthening of middle level and high school education in Georgia.

On July 9, 2010, members of the Executive Committee of GASSP met prior to the GAEL Conference to review and revise the existing improvement plan. The following pages represent the plan that was developed. It was subsequently submitted to the Board of Directors at Summer GAEL and approved to set the direction for the organization for the next 3+ years. The Executive Committee charged the Executive Director and President to drive and monitor the plan during the year. The plan begins on page 3 of this document.
