

Membership Opportunities

Individual: Available to principals, assistant principals, and other school administrators—building, district, and state. Individual members receive all NASSP benefits. This nontransferable membership is owned by the individual.

Institutional: Eligibility and benefits are the same as Individual. This membership is school-owned in the name of an individual and is covered as a professional development expense by most districts. This membership is transferable and all materials are sent to the school.

Associate: Available to department heads, teachers, graduate students, and professors. Associate members do not receive legal or liability coverage.
